

INSTRUCTIONS FOR AUTHORS

Society and Economy is the journal of Corvinus University of Budapest. It covers a wide range of topics in the field of social sciences and publishes research papers in applied economics, economic policy, business studies, as well as transition studies, political science, and international relations. The results of scientific conferences organized by the Corvinus University of Budapest are published in special issues.

Manuscripts should be sent to the editorial office by email (balazs.szentivanyi@uni-corvinus.hu), preferably in MS Word or other widely used format. We do not require printouts. Each manuscript should be sent in two separate documents. The first document should be the title page, including the following information: title of the paper, name of the author(s), affiliation of the author(s), mailing address, e-mail address and the telephone/fax number of the corresponding author. The second document should contain the paper itself. The name of the author(s), or any information allowing the identification of the author(s) should not be included in this second document.

The article must start with an abstract of not more than 200 words, then followed by keywords (at least two, maximum six), and the JEL codes (maximum of three). This is followed by the main text of the article. The text should have an 'Introduction' and a 'Conclusions' section, all section titles should be numbered consecutively. Tables and Figures should be included in the main text. These should also be numbered consecutively and have informative titles, and their source should be provided as well. Figures should be submitted separately as well in .xls, .jpg, .bmp or .tif files. Authors should take into account that figures and images will be printed in black and white.

The manuscript should be spaced 1.5-lines. For emphasizing purposes we request the use of italics. Notes serve to supplement the main text; authors are requested to use them only if unavoidable. References are to be given in the main text in parentheses, including the surname(s) of the author(s) and the year of publication (e.g. Taylor 2007; Taylor – Smith 2008; Taylor et al. 2009). If one author has more than one publication in the same year, these should be differentiated as 2007a, 2007b, etc. The references should be listed in alphabetical order at the end of the text, according to the following examples:

- Taylor, B. (2007): Problems of Industrialization. Journal of Economics and Business 23(2): 34–45.
Taylor, B. – Smith, J. G. (2008): Transition Economies in Crisis. In: Gordon, J. (ed.): Evaluating EU Enlargement. London: Macmillan.
Taylor, B. – Smith, J. G. – Howard, L. – Simpson, H. (2009): New Trends in Management. Cambridge, MA: MIT Press.
Kovács, B. (2007): A felzárkózás esélyei [Chances of catching up]. Budapest: KJK Press.

Manuscripts should be written in clear, concise and grammatically correct English. Please note that the length of papers should not exceed 8,000 words. Each figure and table counts as 250 words. Manuscripts longer than this may be considered in exceptional cases, but as a general rule the editors will automatically reject any paper which exceeds these limits by more than 10 percent.

Manuscripts which meet the requirements above will first be read by the editors, who will decide whether to submit the paper for anonymous peer review or request clarifications and changes from the author. Each paper will then be reviewed by two anonymous reviewers. Based on the reports of the reviewers, the editors will make a final decision on whether to accept or to reject the paper, or to ask for revisions. Due to the nature of this process, we request authors to allow up to 12–14 weeks for a decision to be made on their paper. After receiving the revised manuscript from the author, the editors will make a final decision on accepting it, taking into consideration the revisions made and the original peer reviews.

A copy of the Copyright Transfer Statement will be sent to the authors of the papers accepted for publication. Manuscripts will be processed only after receiving the signed copy of the statement.

Authors can use the OOpenArt (optional open article) publication model for a specific publishing fee. Full-text of an OOpenArt paper is freely accessible through the official website of the journal. These papers are also published in the printed journals as well as all the traditional ones. Peer-review process and quality requirements are the same in case of both traditional and OOpenArt manuscripts. Both accepted new manuscripts and papers published earlier can be OOpenArt.

The price of an OOpenArt article is 590 EUR (770 USD) + VAT, where applicable, but it can be even less.
