REVIEW PROCESS

PREFERRED CONDITIONS OF MANUSCRIPTS

The ACTA ETHNOGRAPHICA HUNGARICA strives to publish high quality papers. To ensure this goal, we apply some basic principles when reviewing a manuscript. Not fulfilling these principles may lead to desk rejection of a submitted manuscript. All submissions are pre-screened by the editorial board and only those papers are submitted to the anonymous review procedure which fit the aims and scope of the journal.

REVIEW OF THE MANUSCRIPTS

ACTA ETHNOGRAPHICA HUNGARICA typically applies a single-blind review process, in which the reviewers' identities are hidden from the authors, while the reviewers are aware of the authors' identity. Unbiased peer reviewers are chosen avoiding any conflict of interest.

Decisions are based on the scientific relevance, representativity, originality, and novelty of the addressed questions and the achieved results, as well as on the quality, depth and philological accuracy of the chosen methodology.

Only about accepted papers are detailed reports provided.

Unpublished content is treated strictly confidentially.
