

JOURNAL OF ADULT LEARNING, KNOWLEDGE AND INNOVATION

AIMS AND SCOPE

JALKI JOURNAL OF ADULT LEARNING, KNOWLEDGE, AND INNOVATION is an academic journal focusing on contemporary ideas and themes in research on adult learning. Its mission is to provide a forum for emerging researchers and established scholars to exchange their research results, views, and opinions on adult learning and knowledge construction at the intersection of theory and practice, including formal, non-formal, and informal learning contexts. It publishes empirical and theoretical papers that promote a problem-oriented, and/or critical approach to research and scholarship, going beyond the description of practice.

JALKI publishes thematic issues and book reviews twice a year (in June and December). It welcomes proposals for new thematic issues and high-quality theoretical and empirical studies.

EDITORIAL BOARD INFORMATION

JALKI was founded in 2016 by the Faculty of Education and Psychology. Its current publisher is Akadémiai Kiadó, Budapest, Hungary.

EDITORIAL BOARD

JALKI is handled by an independent Editorial Board of autonomous scholars. Free from any external influence, they decide about the journal's policies in general, and – based on the outcome of a peer review – about the acceptance of papers. The names and affiliations of the Editorial Board members can be found on the journal's web page.

SUBMISSION INFORMATION

Submission of a paper to JALKI will be taken to imply that it represents original work not previously published, it is not being considered elsewhere for publication, and if accepted for publication it will not be published elsewhere in the same form, in any language, without the consent of editor and publisher. Every submission is scanned against plagiarism using the program iThenticate. Acceptance depends on the opinion of one or more reviewers and the decision of the Editorial Board. Papers accepted for publication are subject to editorial revision.

Members of the editing committee and the Editorial Board can also submit manuscripts. In such cases, the editor assigned to coordinate the editing process must be other than the author.

SUBMISSION

Manuscripts should be submitted through OJS (Open Journal System), an online manuscript submission and review system, which can be found at the following URL:

<https://submit.akademiai.com/jalki/index.php/jalki/about/submissions>.

During the submission process, authors need to upload the following documents:

- Title page: name, affiliation, e-mail address, and ORCID number of the author(s) and an indication of the type of article (research article = original article introducing research results; review article = specialized topics within the scope of the journal, typically systematic reviews or critical analyses of a field of research; conference papers), Acknowledgment, Funding, About the author (ca. 100 words), Ethical permission or reference to Ethical permission
- Manuscript: anonymized paper without any data referring to the author(s) (such as author's name or references to own work)
- Tables and figures: separately, tables and diagrams in Excel, other figures in PDF

PEER REVIEW CHARGE

No peer review charge applies.

REVIEW PROCESS

PREFERRED CONDITIONS OF MANUSCRIPTS

JALKI strives to publish high-quality papers. To ensure this goal, we apply some basic principles (as indicated in this guide) when reviewing a manuscript. Not fulfilling these principles may lead to desk rejection of a submitted manuscript.

REVIEW OF THE MANUSCRIPTS

JALKI uses a double-blind peer review process on manuscripts to ensure both rigor and expediency. In this type of review process, the identity of both the author and reviewer is kept hidden.

Unpublished results are treated strictly confidentially.

INITIAL REVIEW

The assigned editor at JALKI decides whether the manuscript fits within the scope and guidelines of JALKI, constitutes original research, and warrants a full peer review. If the decision is negative, the manuscript will be rejected, and the author will be contacted by email about this decision. This usually takes at most five working days.

FULL REVIEW

If the initial review decision is positive, a blind review will be conducted. The assigned editor will acquire at least two reviews who are not members of the editorial board. Authors may suggest reviewers (with contact information) during the submission process. Reviewers normally have 21 days to complete their review. Based on the reviews, the assigned editor decides if a minor revision (minor revisions required) or a major revision (resubmit for review) is requested from the author, based on the reviewers' comments. In the latter case, the review process will be repeated.

Furthermore, if the manuscript does not fully adhere to the formatting requirements detailed in this GUIDE and in the JALKI Article Template available at the journal site on the publisher's platform, the author will be requested to amend the formatting of her/his manuscript.

REVISE AND RESUBMIT

The author will receive the reviewer's comments. If changes are requested, the author is expected to revise and resubmit the manuscript within 21 working days to be considered for acceptance. Authors must prepare and upload in the OJS a point-by-point response to the reviewers' comments and a copy of the revised manuscript with the changes tracked or highlighted. The revised manuscript will be reviewed in a second round.

ACCEPTANCE

Once the assigned editor is satisfied with the changes, the manuscript will be accepted. Only very rarely will a manuscript be accepted without any revision.

Once a manuscript is accepted, the author will be requested to upload an unblinded manuscript within two working days.

REJECT

The manuscript may be rejected after the first or a later round of full review. While naturally a disappointment, JALKI hopes that the authors will appreciate the importance of a rigorous review process to ensure both scholarly rigor and practitioner relevance.
