

Journal of Psychedelic Studies

Instructions for Authors

AIMS AND SCOPE

The aim of the JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES is to create a forum for the scientific information exchange with regard to altered states of consciousness induced by psychedelic substances. The journal is a broad focused interdisciplinary one that publishes manuscripts on different approaches of altered states of consciousness induced by hallucinogenic substances, research reports focusing on the neurological and phenomenological patterns produced by psychedelics, cultural and intercultural aspects of entheogens, and also publishes reviews in these topics. Coverage ranges from psychopharmacological and neurobiological research through psychological and philosophical approaches to sociological and anthropological aspects. The journal's language is English.

EDITORIAL BOARD INFORMATION

JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES was founded in 2016 by Akadémiai Kiadó, University of Debrecen, Eötvös Loránd University and the Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church in Hungary. Its publisher is Akadémiai Kiadó (Budapest, Hungary).

EDITORIAL BOARD

JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES is handled by an independent Editorial Board of autonomous scholars. Free from any external influence, they decide about the journal's policies in general, and – based on the outcome of peer reviews – about the acceptance of papers in each concrete case. The names and affiliations of the Editorial Board members can be found on the journal's web page <https://akjournals.com/2054>.

Instructions for Authors

SUBMISSION

Authors should submit their manuscripts using the online manuscript submission and peer review system, Open Journal System (OJS). Please, consult the following link when submitting a manuscript:

<https://submit.akademiai.com/jps/index.php/jps>.

REVIEW PROCESS

Each paper will be evaluated by at least two referees. Authors may request masked review. We ask the authors to upload an anonymized manuscript and include a separate title page, which shows the title of the manuscript, the authors' names, and institutional affiliations. It is the authors' responsibility to see that the manuscript itself contains no clues to the authors' identity.

Authors are welcome to suggest at most four-five potential reviewers when submitting their manuscripts. Suggested reviewers may not be in any way affiliated with the author or the work. Authors should provide the affiliations, and the institutional e-mail addresses verifying the identity of the suggested reviewer. The editor may not use author's suggestion, but it may facilitate the review process.

Unpublished results are treated strictly confidentially.

COPYRIGHT AND LICENCE POLICY

OPEN ACCESS

JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES is a Gold Open Access journal. Readers can read, download, copy, distribute, print, search or link to the full texts of articles, or use them for any other non-commercial lawful purpose. By default, articles are distributed under Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Licenses.

The Open Access Licence Agreement form can be downloaded from here (and a slightly modified variant here; for those authors who are eligible for Open Access publication through the EISZ consortial agreement, see below, and an other version here for authors affiliated with Jisc consortial partners).

ARTICLE PROCESSING CHARGES

The Journal of Psychedelic Studies is an Open Access journal. The corresponding author of every manuscript submitted after 31 December 2023 is requested to pay the Article Processing Charge (APC) of 990 EUR to cover the publishing costs of the paper. Corresponding authors whose APC is covered by a valid agreement between a consortium and Akadémiai Kiadó (i.e., EISZ or Jisc) may publish their work free of charge. Akadémiai Kiadó offers 50% discount for Editorial Board members and Associate Editors as corresponding authors, and for authors affiliated with institutions in lower-middle-income countries. Authors from low-income countries may publish free of charge. Manuscripts with outstanding payment will not be published until the balance is cleared.

Once your paper is accepted for publication in the Journal of Psychedelic Studies you will be requested to enter our online payment platform (<http://apc.akademiai.hu>), where after registration you can upload license agreement and transfer the fee. Article processing will commence after the amount due has been remitted to our account. (Please note that there is no peer review charge, the only applicable fee is the article processing charge for authors of accepted papers.)

Journal of Psychedelic Studies

Instructions for Authors

Open Access policy of the journal includes the free and unrestricted self-archiving of the final published version of papers on the Author's webpage or on the Author's institutional repository with open or restricted access. When self-archiving or communicating a paper via e-mail, the Author should quote the correct citation and enclose a link to the published article ([https://doi.org/\[DOI\]](https://doi.org/[DOI]) of the Article without brackets]).

COPYRIGHT AND LICENCE POLICY

By default, the articles are published under the Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International Licenses Copyright Terms. With that, the authors grant to Akadémiai Kiadó Zrt. (hereafter the Publisher) an irrevocable nonexclusive license to publish the article in electronic and print format, and further sublicense the article in its original language throughout the world. The Publisher has the exclusive right to publish the article first.

The Author shall declare and warrant that

- he/she is the exclusive author of the article along with the above indicated co-authors and he/she has the approval of all the other co-authors to publish the article in its current form,
- the article is their own intellectual product,
- the article is original, has not been formally published in any other peer-reviewed journal, is not under consideration by any other journal and does not infringe any existing copyright or any other third-party rights,
- there is no plagiarism in the article, the content is punctual and true to the best of the Author's knowledge, it does not include any libel, or parts that are obscene or violate the copyrights, private life or any other rights of a third party, or that are illegal and shall warrant that the manuscript is not partly or entirely under review or being published at any other journals either in English or in any other languages,
- the Author shall accept that he/she shall provide the exact location of the first publication of the article when making the article available to any third party and shall enclose the link to the location of the first publication in the following format: ([https://doi.org/ \[The DOI-number of the article without brackets\]](https://doi.org/[DOI])).

The Publisher shall be entitled to the following – not exclusive - rights of use after the first publication:

- To make the article available to the public for download on their own official publisher webpage without any time restriction.
- To utilize the article for commercial purposes individually or for the entire journal without any geographic or time limitation (for subscribers, one-off downloaders, one-off buyers of the article archive, etc.).
- To convert the article into the optional electronic format, to copy the article on a PC or electronic data medium.
- To publish the article in the electronic and printed journals indicated on the official publisher homepage, also including those journals that are partially or entirely available to a third party against a subscription fee.
- To share the publishing and rights of use with any other third party, respectively exercise these rights together with a third party.
- To translate the article into a different language.
- To represent the author in the case of conducts of infringement of rights, unauthorized usage or violation of copyrights.

Journal of Psychedelic Studies

Instructions for Authors

- To exercise all those rights that any third party is entitled to according to the license terms “CC BY NC” indicated above.

The articles published in the framework of the EISZ Read and Publish Agreement and the Jisc Transitional Agreement are covered by the Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License. That is, their use is allowed also for commercial purposes.

Above license information is also available through Sherpa Romeo.

AUTHOR CHARGES

Authors need not pay any further charge.

For more information on Akadémiai Kiadó's Open Access policy visit our website.

ETHICAL STATEMENT

Manuscript submissions should be accompanied by a Cover Letter. The cover letter should include statements regarding Authorship, Disclosure, and Ethical Statements. Also, it may include a list of 4-5 suggested reviewers, their affiliations, and their e-mail addresses.

AUTHORSHIP

All persons designated as authors should qualify for authorship. Each author should have participated sufficiently in the work to take public responsibility for the content. The corresponding author affirms that he or she had access to all data from the study, both what is reported and what is unreported, and also that he or she had complete freedom to direct its analysis and its reporting, without influence from the sponsors. The corresponding author also affirms that there was no editorial direction or censorship from the sponsors. Preparation of drafts of manuscripts by employees of the sponsor who are not listed as authors is expressly prohibited.

DISCLOSURE OF FINANCIAL RELATIONSHIPS

Disclosure of financial relationships is required at the time of submission and provisional acceptance of all manuscripts, including original articles, reviews, commentaries, and book reviews. The authors are responsible for informing the Journal of any additional financial relationships that may arise prior to the date of publication of their paper. Financial support for the study is always disclosed in the Acknowledgments, whether from governmental, nonprofit, or commercial sources. Non-financial forms of support, such as drugs, analytic support, or other assistance with preparation of the manuscript, must also be acknowledged. All authors must individually disclose all financial relationships, whether or not directly related to the subject of their paper. Such reporting must include all equity ownership, profit-sharing agreements, royalties, patents, and research or other grants from private industry or closely affiliated nonprofit funds. For income from pharmaceutical companies, the purpose must be specified. Reporting should encompass the previous 36 months. If an author has no interests to disclose, this must be explicitly stated in the Cover Letter. The Editors will review all author statements of financial support to determine if there is evidence of bias from these sources. If it appears that there may be, then further review and possible rejection of the manuscript may occur. Authors are encouraged to contact the Editor at any stage in the manuscript review process if they believe that they have relationships that require review.

Instructions for Authors

ETHICAL CONSIDERATIONS

The JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES and Akadémiai Kiadó are committed to the protection of animal and human research subjects and ethical practices in science publishing and therefore follow the COPE Code of Conduct for Journal Editors as well as the Core Practices.

Studies submitted to the JOURNAL OF PSYCHEDELIC STUDIES must have been conducted in accordance with the Declaration of Helsinki and according to requirements of all applicable local and international standards.

All authors are expected to be aware and follow the Ethical Guide of Akadémiai Kiadó, conform to the highest standards of ethical conduct in the submission of accurate data, acknowledging the work of others, and divulging potential conflicts of interests.

PREPARATION OF THE MANUSCRIPTS

TYPES OF MANUSCRIPTS

- (1) Original Research Papers reporting high quality original results of research typically should not exceed 4000 words for the main body of the paper (i.e., excluding abstract, references, acknowledgments, tables and figures).
- (2) Review Articles of specialized topics within the scope of the journal. Typically, these are systematic reviews or critical analyses of a field of research. A Review Article typically should not exceed 6000 words (i.e., excluding abstract, references, acknowledgments, tables and figures).
- (3) Systematic review, meta-analysis.
- (4) Brief Reports reporting on research that has progressed to the stage where a preliminary publication is appropriate. Manuscript length for Brief Reports is 2000 words. There should be not more than 2 illustrations (figure or tables) and 30 references.
- (5) Commentaries express points of view on scientific matters or published papers. Typically, Commentaries are solicited by the editors, but authors who wish to submit Commentaries are advised to contact the Editor-in-Chief to discuss the suitability of the proposed paper. A Commentary typically should not exceed 2000 words.
- (6) Case Reports Only exceptional cases will be considered for publication as single case report. Case Reports should describe novel, well-documented findings that will be of help and interest to the practitioner.
- (7) Book Reviews. Books for review should be directly sent to the Book Reviews Editor and to the Editorial Office of the Journal of Psychedelic Studies. Books are received with the understanding that reviewers selected by the Book Reviews Editor write their independent critical appraisals of the book's content and presentation. The journal does not publish Letters to the Editor.

MANUSCRIPT SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Manuscripts should be written in English and should be typed in double spacing with wide margins. Please upload one single main document edited and formatted according to the following instructions.

TITLE PAGE

The title page should contain the title of the paper, a short running title, the name, the affiliation and the e-mail address of each author, and an indication of which author will be responsible for correspondence. All contact details (address with postal codes and countries, phone, and e-mail) of the corresponding author are required. Abbreviations in the title should be avoided. Title page should also contain the date when the manuscript is submitted. The title page should include statements regarding Funding sources, Authors'

Journal of Psychedelic Studies

Instructions for Authors

contribution, and Conflict of interest. Following the blind review process and the acceptance of the manuscript, these statements will be added to the published paper.

ABSTRACTS

should not exceed 250 words and should be presented on a separate sheet. Abstracts should be structured with specific sections describing the background and aims, methods, results, and conclusions.

KEY WORDS

Abstracts should be accompanied by three to six key words or phrases that characterize the contents of the paper. These will be used for indexing and data retrieval purposes.

MAIN TEXT

The body of research reports will generally include introduction, methods, results, and discussion sections. Further subheadings are acceptable. Review papers should also use section headings and subheadings. Sections should not be numbered. Please, avoid footnotes.

TEXT HEADINGS

All headings in the text should be set over to the left-hand margin, and the text should begin on the next line. Type first level (sectional) HEADINGS ALL IN CAPITALS. For second and third level headings, only the first letter of the first word should be a capital. Use bold letters for second level headings and italic for third level headings.

REFERENCES

Style, statistical reporting, and reference citations should conform to the American Psychological Association's guidelines, from the APA Publication Manual, fifth edition. To conform with the APA Publication Manual, 7th edition, references should be alphabetized at the end of the manuscript text. DOI links should be added to the references when available.

should be numbered with consecutive Arabic numerals, have descriptive captions, and be mentioned in the text. Figures should be kept at the end of the manuscript text (after references) and an approximate position for each should be indicated in the margin. It is the author's responsibility to obtain permission for any reproduction from other sources. Photographs should be submitted electronically in TIF or JPG format in separate files.

TABLES

should be clearly typed with double spacing. Number tables with consecutive Arabic numerals and give each a clear descriptive heading. Avoid the use of vertical rules in tables. Table notes should be typed below the table, designated by superior lower-case letters. Tables should be kept at the end of the manuscript text (after figures) and an approximate position for each table should be indicated in the margin.

PROOF

Online page proofs for author's approval or corrections are requested to be returned within 72 hours from receipt. Please note that authors are urged to check their proofs carefully before submitting corrections, since late corrections cannot be guaranteed for inclusion and post-publication corrections are only possible in a
